Dear Ed,

How nice to hear from you again and to see some more of your fine photographs. I'm sorry we didn't have a chance to shake hands and have a visit but it was nice to see you at the ceremony at Salve Regina even from a distance. As always, you were working hard and doing a great job.

I really enjoyed our visit back to Rhode Island and particularly to Newport. The progress the city has made in the three years since we left is truly remarkable. Pat and I look back on our days with all of you there with a lot of warmth and friendship.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
